CARE CENTRE

A warm welcome to Ruddington Manor

Welcome to Ruddington Manor; a lovely and luxurious care home located in the quiet village of Wilford, near Nottingham

Ruddington Manor is a purpose-built 66 bed 'new generation' care facility that has been expertly designed to meet all current CQC requirements and provides the highest standards of safety, comfort and care. The care home offers residential and nursing care.

Internally, the attention to detail is impressive. The high specification and décor of Ruddington Manor has been carefully considered by an interior designer, creating stylish yet comfortable and practical spaces for residents to enjoy.

Arranged over two floors, the facilities at Ruddington Manor are exceptional, with each floor enjoying its own communal lounges and restaurants. All bedrooms boast en suite wet rooms, and there is also a spa assisted bathroom, hairdresser & nail bar.

There are beautiful, mature gardens and outside seating areas at Ruddington Manor along with a terrace area to the first floor. Making the most of its gorgeous grounds, many of the ground floor rooms have direct access to the gardens.

What to expect from Ruddington Manor

Ruddington Manor is a friendly place where residents can live in a community where kindness, compassion, knowledge, skill and confidence combine to offer respectful and dignified care.

It is a place where relationships matter, relationship and sense of belonging is at the core of the Ruddington Manor, between residents and those who work there and between all of those who visit, including friends, relatives and professionals.

The care team at Ruddington Manor have been hand-picked, possessing the necessary attitude and qualities that ensure a kind and safe place for residents to live.

Quality person centred care is at the heart of Ruddington Manor and this is enhanced further with our additional daily wellbeing services which include purposeful, fun and physical activity. Activities are aimed at enhancing the mental, physical and emotional wellbeing of residents.

Stylish restaurants are designed to provide a pleasant dining experience for all residents. All meals are freshly prepared under the watchful eye of the head chef who ensures a varied and tasty menu catering for special diets and differing tastes.

Making the most of the location of Ruddington Manor the home provides private gardens, beautifully landscaped with mature trees, vibrant floral displays and plants. Residents can continue to enjoy the outside space and involve themselves in the gardening club or just take a walk and enjoy the fresh air.
